Lenel and Mercury Security Announce Long-Term Agreement for Access Control Hardware

Long Beach, CA. and Rochester, NY, July 30, 2012— Mercury Security Corporation, an industry leader in open platforms for access control, announced today that it has signed a long-term contract with Lenel Systems International Inc., a leading provider of enterprise software, integrated systems and access control systems, to provide access control hardware for use with the Lenel OnGuard[®] Total Security Platform.

“Mercury and Lenel look forward to working together to enhance and improve existing product lines and to provide the industry with new, innovative and highly competitive products into the next decade,” said Frank Gasztonyi, co-founder and CTO of Mercury Security.

“After a successful 16-year relationship, we are thrilled to enter into a long-term agreement that allows us to collaborate closely with the industry’s premium access control systems brand,” added Gasztonyi.

“Mercury and Lenel have successfully innovated industry-leading security solutions for many years. We are both focused on meeting customer and market needs by jointly developing differentiated solutions,” said Joe Kirmser, president, Lenel.
